MUSEUM NOTES: OCTOBER 26, 2016

THE FALL FESTIVAL QUILT SHOW WINNER

With the phones and internet down, we are enjoying a quite morning at the museum and are getting a few things done without interruption. One of those being, counting votes for the favorite quilt from our fall foliage show. It was a close vote between several quilts; the final result was "Lovebird Lane". This quilt was machine pieced and quilted by Frederica Seaman. She also machine appliqued the quilt with a combination of birdhouses and tulips and a pieced ribbon border. We had a wonderful group of quilts this year, so many different types, colors, old and new. Again we thank each and every one of you for participating.

DICK WILBERFORCE PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT

Dick Wilberforce will have his photography show up through December. If you have not gotten by to see it, stop by. He does amazing work and it's always a privilege to have him show here.

PHOTOGRAPHY CONTEST

The museum will be having a local photography contest early this summer, open to all ages. If we get enough entries, we will divide the show into age groups. The only rules will be that the photo will need to be taken in Hemphill County and printed on 8 x 10 photo paper; the museum will provide the frame. We will give more information as the date draws near. We hope this will be a fun way to get the community involved and would like to give you plenty of time to begin taking pictures. There will be no charge to enter and winners will be decided by museum visitors. Give us a call if you have questions and spread the word!
